Global markets started May in a positive mood, but sentiment began to turn in the last week of the month. This negative sentiment has carried over into June. A combination of factors are worrying Mr Market including hints from the Federal Reserve that they may scale back the pace of quantitative easing, rising bond yields, falling commodity prices, the sharp reversal in the Japanese stock market and weakness in emerging market currencies.

As we have discussed previously, rising prices have meant a narrowing of the opportunity set in equity markets. This has led us to become more selective: Evenlode's number of holdings has fallen from 34 to 29 since the start of the year (with exits from Nichols and British American Tobacco completed in May) and proceeds from disposals have been recycled into existing holdings where we see better opportunity. Thanks in part to these changes, I remain very reassured by the current portfolio's combination of quality and value.

The fund rose +2.8% compared with +2.3% for the IMA UK Equity Income Sector. The most positive contributors to performance were Sage Group, Glaxosmithkline and Microsoft. The most negative were SABMiller and MITIE. On the dividend front, Evenlode's first quarterly distribution (for the year to February 2014) has increased by +10.4% to 1.17p (B Inc). This reflects a good start to the year for dividend payments from underlying holdings.

RISK WARNINGS

Full details of the TB Wise Funds, including risk warnings, are published in the TB Wise Funds Prospectus, the TB Wise Supplementary Information Document (SID) and the TB Wise Key Investor Information Documents (KIIDs) which are available on request and at www.wiseinvestment.co.uk. The TB Wise Funds are subject to normal stock market fluctuations and other risks inherent in such investments. The value of your investment and the income derived from it can go down as well as up, and you may not get back the money you invested. Capital appreciation in the early years will be adversely affected by the impact of initial charges and you should therefore regard your investment as medium-to-long term. As a concentrated portfolio of 20 to 30 investments Evenlode Income carries more risk than a fund spread over a large number of stocks. The fund has the ability to invest in derivatives for the purposes of EPM, which may restrict gains in a rising market. Investments in overseas equities may be affected by changes in exchange rates, which could cause the value of your investment to increase or diminish.
