MANAGER COMMENTARY

Markets edged higher in July with economic sentiment reasonably positive, particularly in non-US regions such as Europe and China. Much of the market 'action' was in the industrial metal and oil sectors, which held Evenlode's relative performance back somewhat given the fund's lack of exposure to commodity producers: Evenlode fell -0.3% compared to a rise of +1.2% for both the IA UK All Companies Sector and the UK market.

In terms of holdings, more than 80% of the portfolio has released updates since the start of July, and the overall picture has been very reassuring, particularly in the context of a backdrop that continues to provide challenges for almost all industries. Diageo was the most positive contributor to return, releasing healthy final results that demonstrated good growth and cash generation, and were accompanied by increased medium-term profit guidance and a +5% increase in the dividend. Being a Diageo shareholder has required patience over the last few years, with the company working through both an emerging market slowdown and inventory issues. It's therefore encouraging to see the company return to its normal, highly cash generative ways more recently. Other strong performers following results included Informa, PZ Cussons, Victrex, Burberry, Microsoft and Unilever. The main negative performers were healthcare holdings AstraZeneca and GlaxoSmithKline. Both companies are undergoing product transitions that are impacting current performance, whilst AstraZeneca shares were also hit by disappointing data on the group's important 'Mystic' cancer therapy trial. We acknowledge current challenges for both companies, but also view longer-term prospects as more positive thanks to a diversified mix of market-leading franchises (in Glaxo's case) and a highly promising portfolio of newer therapies (in Astra's case).

The main portfolio change was the completion of the WS Atkins takeover in early July. We used the proceeds to add to several holdings across the portfolio where we see a compelling combination of quality, cash generation, dividend yield and dividend growth potential. Stocks we added to included Diageo, Smiths Group, Informa, UBM, DMGT, WPP, P & G and Pepsi.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Evenlode Income is a sub-fund of the TB Wise OEIC. Full details of the TB Wise Funds, including risk warnings, are published in the TB Wise Funds Prospectus, the TB Wise Supplementary Information Document (SID) and the TB Wise Key Investor Information Documents (KIIDs) which are available on request and at www.evenlodeinvestment.com. The TB Wise Funds are subject to normal stock market fluctuations and other risks inherent in such investments. The value of your investment and the income derived from it can go down as well as up, and you may not get back the money you invested, you should therefore regard your investment as medium-to-long term. As a concentrated portfolio of typically less than 40 investments, Evenlode Income carries more risk than a fund spread over a large number of stocks. Investments in overseas equities may be affected by changes in exchange rates, which could cause the value of your investment to increase or diminish.
