

EVENLODE INCOME

MONTHLY FACTSHEET

all data as at 30 April 2016

MANAGER COMMENTARY

The fund fell -0.5% over the month compared a rise of +0.1% for the UK Equity Income Sector and +1.1% for the UK market. Some of the more challenged areas of the market gained favour in April as sentiment towards China, emerging markets and the oil price continued to improve relative to recent pessimistic expectations. In this respect, the fund's relative performance was held back by its lack of exposure to oil and mining stocks.

In terms of fund holdings, the strongest contributors were Paypoint, RWS Holdings and Glaxosmithkline. Paypoint shares rose on no specific news, while patent translation business RWS released a strong trading update and positive outlook statement. Meanwhile, Glaxo released reassuring first quarter results and upgraded guidance for the year. The benefits of last year's Novartis transaction are beginning to show through in the vaccine and consumer healthcare divisions, while its HIV business ViiV continues to perform very strongly.

The weakest contributors to performance were Sage, Microsoft and Victrex. Sage fell on no specific news, Microsoft released weaker than expected first quarter results, and Victrex fell after announcing the settlement of a Federal Trade Commission inquiry in its US business. We continue to see good long-term value and compelling potential for dividend growth in all of these holdings.

We used cash inflows during the month to add to existing positions and have made no major changes to the shape of the portfolio.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Evenlode Income is a sub-fund of the TB Wise OEIC. Full details of the TB Wise Funds, including risk warnings, are published in the TB Wise Funds Prospectus, the TB Wise Supplementary Information Document (SID) and the TB Wise Key Investor Information Documents (KIIDs) which are available on request and at www.evenlodeinvestment.com. The TB Wise Funds are subject to normal stock market fluctuations and other risks inherent in such investments. The value of your investment and the income derived from it can go down as well as up, and you may not get back the money you invested, you should therefore regard your investment as medium-to-long term. As a concentrated portfolio of typically less than 40 investments, Evenlode Income carries more risk than a fund spread over a large number of stocks. The fund has the ability to invest in derivatives for the purposes of EPM, which may restrict gains in a rising market. Investments in overseas equities may be affected by changes in exchange rates, which could cause the value of your investment to increase or diminish. Every effort is taken to ensure the accuracy of the data used in this document but no warranties are given.
