

TB EVENLODE GLOBAL INCOME

MONTHLY FACTSHEET all data as at 31 March 2022 unless otherwise indicated

MANAGER COMMENTARY

As the conflict in Ukraine continues, our survey of companies within the Evenlode portfolios confirms the limited exposure from sales to the region. We continue to hope for an end to hostilities, although limited progress towards peace has been made to date. Within the portfolio we have continued to manage valuation opportunity and risk and have added two new holdings in recent months. In February we added financial services firm Broadridge, which provides various services that help to stitch information flows together in capital markets. Its largest division, entitled Investor Communications Solutions, looks after the dull-but-important business of ensuring that communications from companies and funds reach their investors. It has a dividend yield of 1.5%, and whilst free cash flow is subdued at the moment due to new systems roll outs, the longer-term view shows very good cash generating ability.

Adidas, added to the portfolio in March, probably needs no introduction. It is second to Nike in the global sportswear market, but the two companies are the giants of the sector with clear daylight to others like Puma and upstart Under Armour. The brand is at the crux of the investment case, and Adidas' scale means that it can invest in the biggest sponsorships to reinforce the image of its products. The company has been experiencing supply disruption, notably in Vietnam where its contract manufacturers of footwear are predominantly based and were affected by coronavirus lockdowns. This weighed on the share price in 2021, and more recently exposure to Russia has not helped, with around 2% of sales from the region. The company has ceased all supplies to Russia and closed its stores which will be a drag on revenues and profitability. However, growth drivers globally remain, especially in the US and China.

Integration into the investment process

The UK AGM season has begun. Last year, we voted at a total of 74 meetings, voting against management at 28% of the meetings on at least one resolution. This year, we expect this number to drop as over the last few months our investee companies have been proactively engaging with us on governance-related matters. They have provided feedback on the changes they have made on performance metrics, targets, sustainability and their climate transition plans. We have been encouraged with the level of detail, transparency and change we have seen in their incentivisation models and are looking forward to a fascinating season ahead.

CHARLIE FREITAG

Stewardship Analyst

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Factsheet has been produced by Evenlode Investment Management Limited. TB Evenlode Global Income is a sub-fund of the TB Evenlode Investment Funds ICVC. Full details of the TB Evenlode Investment Funds, including risk warnings, are published in the TB Evenlode Investment Funds Prospectus and the TB Evenlode Investment Funds Key Investor Information Documents (KIIDs) which are available on request and at www.evenlodeinvestment.com. The TB Evenlode Investment Funds are subject to normal stock market fluctuations and other risks inherent in such investments. The value of your investment and the income derived from it can go down as well as up, and you may not get back the money you invested, you should therefore regard your investment as long term. As a focused portfolio of typically less than 40 investments, TB Evenlode Global Income carries more risk than a fund spread over a large number of stocks. The fund has the ability to invest in derivatives for the purposes of EPM, which may restrict gains in a rising market. Investments in overseas equities may be affected by changes in exchange rates, which could cause the value of your investment to increase or diminish.
